Head of Healthcare Practice

Jeff is a Partner and Head of the Healthcare Practice at Cambridge Associates. With 25 years of investment experience, Jeff works with not-for-profit healthcare institutions in setting investment strategy and managing custom investment portfolios. Jeff worked for Cambridge Associates from 2008 to 2014, and from 2014 to 2017, he served as Managing Director of Investments at New York-Presbyterian Hospital, responsible for the global equities, hedge fund, and fixed income portfolios. In 2017, Jeff rejoined Cambridge Associates and founded the firm’s New York City office.

Earlier in his career, Jeff was responsible for derivatives implementation, asset allocation, and fixed income portfolio management at the Teacher Retirement System of Texas. Jeff began his career working in the audit practice at Ernst & Young LLP, the equity research group at Lehman Brothers, and as an analyst at Derchin Management, a long/short equity hedge fund.

Jeff was recognized by Chief Investment Officer magazine as a 2017 “Knowledge Broker”, a list of the world’s most influential investment consultants. He has also authored a number of Cambridge Associates research reports including Mission Critical – Maximizing the Impact of Hospital Investments, Navigating Healthcare Systems Through the Coronavirus Crisis, and Recalibrating Healthcare Systems for 2021 and Beyond.
