

Heather Laurence
MBA '24
Managing Director, UTIMCO
Austin, TX

Heather is a highly accomplished professional, recognized for her leadership and dedication to service. As the Executive MBA Class of 2024 recipient of both the Alumni Ambassador Award and the Student Service & Leadership Award, she has consistently demonstrated excellence. In her roles as Class co-President and President of the Graduate Women in Business organization, Heather has proven her commitment to working tirelessly on behalf of her peers. With a robust background as a Program Manager and Director in the high-tech industry, including significant roles at Expedia, Blackbaud, and Hewlett-Packard, she brings a wealth of expertise to every endeavor. Based in Austin, TX, Heather enjoys traveling across the country in an RV with her husband and two children.