

Noe Negrete

MBA '22

2022 MBA Alumni Ambassador Award Recipient, Full-Time Program

Senior Consultant, Cognizant

Houston, TX

While earning his MBA, Negrete worked as a Business Development and Strategy Consultant for a venture capitalist. Previously, he was the Senior Pricing Analyst for Silver Eagle

Distributors, where he strategically priced 2,545 products in the Houston and San Antonio markets. Before joining Silver Eagle, Negrete worked for the Houston Hispanic Chamber of Commerce, a non-profit organization, where he had dual functions in financial reporting and business development. Negrete focused on bridging the connection between small Houston-based minority-owned businesses with Fortune 500 companies. Negrete's early career included underwriting commercial borrowers as a Credit Analyst for Allegiance Bank of Texas.

Negrete serves on the Houston Livestock Show & Rodeo – Go Tejano Committee and the Smith Hutson Scholarship Program at Sam Houston State University. He previously served on the Advisory Board of the Academic Achievers Program at the University of Houston and as a volunteer for the H.E.A.R.T. program, Houston Food Bank, Barbara Bush Houston Literacy Foundation, and St. Jude Children's Research Hospital.

Negrete enjoys golfing, fishing, hunting, and spending time with family. Negrete advocates for first-generation college programs, education, and volunteer work.

Negrete earned a Master of Business Administration from The University of Texas at Austin after graduating magna cum laude from Sam Houston State University with a Bachelor of Business Administration in both Finance and Banking & Financial Institutions.
